Life is precious

My company, Right Here Productions, has signed up to 'Charlie House Venture 2022', which is an 'Apprentice' style challenge that asks us to invest £100 and grow that investment as much as possible over 8 weeks. The total is donated to Charlie House.

I have already spent my £100 on the hire of the Acorn Centre a couple of weeks ago to put on a concert that raised over £1,300. I'm now using some of that money to hire venues in Inverurie to run 'RHP Fest', a series of workshops, activities and events in the first week of the October holidays (15th-23rd October).

I was hoping for support from local businesses in a few different ways...

- If any shop front businesses would be willing to turn their window displays orange for Charlie House, or even have a 'touch of orange', during the week of RHP Fest, that would be brilliant!
- We're also doing a treasure trail through Inverurie that can be done anytime during that week. I was wondering whether some of the shops in the centre of the town would be able to hide a wee picture of Charlie Dog in their window for treasure hunters to try to find? I can provide the picture and deliver it to you the week before.
- And finally, my last event is a variety concert in the Town Hall on Sunday 23rd October and I'm looking for donations of raffle prizes, if anyone would be able to do that.

I know how supportive Inverurie businesses have been of other events and special occasions in the town, and it's always been a source of real pride for me, as a member of the community. I'd be so appreciative of any support for this too. The aim is to raise as much money (and awareness) for Charlie House as we can, which I'm sure you'll agree is a very deserving charity. For more information on Charlie House and the important work they do, visit charliehouse.org.uk

If you'd be keen to be part of the weekend in any way (detailed above, or otherwise!!) please give me a shout - alison.telfer@righthereproductions.com - 07742343788.

Thanks so much for your time,

Alison
